

BROOMFIELD PEDIATRICS WELCOMES OUR NEW PROVIDER

NEHA VAITHA

PEDIATRICIAN, MD
STARTING ON DECEMBER 2, 2019

“My time working at one of the highest acuity children’s medical facilities in the southeast has given me experience seeing a wide array of cases. My priority has always been to serve each child and parent with 100% of my attention, focus and patience”

Education & Affiliations

For over six years, Dr. Vaitha, was an Asst. Professor of Pediatrics as an urgent care physician at Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta / Emory University. She received her B.Sc. in Biology from Augusta State University. She then went on to pursue her medical career at Morehouse School of Medicine in Atlanta GA, where she also completed her medical training and residency. Dr. Vaitha is board-certified.

Personal

Dr. Vaitha has a great passion for doing charity work. In 2011, she co-founded a children’s preschool in Haiti (www.rise2shine.org), that serves 70+ malnourished children who have limited to no access to food, education and healthcare. The program has served hundreds of children and is still running strong today.

Dr. Vaitha loves spending time with her husband and two children, along with playing board games, hiking and travelling.
